46th Annual John Muir Conservation Award 2024 Nomination Form

Since 1978, the John Muir Association has honored those who continue John Muir’s legacy of environmental stewardship and preservation. This year we plan to present the John Muir Conservation Award in each of the four award categories listed below.

The John Muir Conservation Awards will be presented at the John Muir Birthday–Earth Day Celebration on April 26, 2025 at the John Muir National Historic Site in Martinez, California. Conservation Award recipients will be notified in advance of the award presentation. If a recipient is unable to attend in person and is unable to send a representative, arrangements may be made to mail the award to the recipient. An award certificate may not be given in a category if the panel judges that no applicant meets the standards in that category.

To submit a nomination, please complete this John Muir Conservation Award 2024 Nomination Form and provide the additional submittals described below. Self nominations are accepted. Please e-mail (preferred) or mail the completed submission packet to:
